EXCITING NEW CLASSES

We've started offering webinars on hot insurance topics. Next month's webinar, sponsored by Mintz, is The Additional Insured Illusion... and "Other Feats of Contractual Risk Transfer Magic Even David Copperfield Couldn't Pull Off" taught by Bill Wilson, founder of InsuranceCommentary.com and Big "I" Virtual University. If your organization is interested in sponsoring a future webinar, please contact us!

Two other new classroom classes we're excited about are Issues in Homeowners Insurance Coverage and Homeowners Condominium Coverage. Conveniently, they're both being offered on December 5th -- that's right, the same day as our Holiday Party!

NEW LINKEDIN PAGE!

The Library has a new LinkedIn page! We would encourage you to start following us, as we've started posting a lot of great content.

Every weekday we link to articles that we think our members and followers will find interesting. For example, take a look at today's link to an article on the top 10 cities for auto theft on Halloween! Hint: you might want lojack (or something similar) if you live in California. . . .
