K. DOUGLAS BRIGGS

2021 Insurance Professional of the Year Chairman & CEO of Quincy Mutual Group

Doug serves as Chairman and CEO of Quincy Mutual Group and its affiliates. He was appointed CEO and President in 1985. Formerly, he held the position of Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer of the Company. He was previously employed by Coopers & Lybrand Certified Public Accountants.

Doug has served on The Insurance Library's Board of Trustees since 2000. He served as President of the board from 2007-2009, and has chaired the Library's Investment Committee for several years. He is a former Director of the Property Casualty Insurers Association of America; former Governing Committee Member of the Automobile Insurers Bureau of Massachusetts; past Chairman of the Mutual Fire Insurance Association of New England; former Trustee of Eastern Bank and past Chairman of the Bank's Audit Committee; Director South Shore YMCA; and Director of Friendship Home.

Doug received his Bachelor of Science in Engineering from Cornell University in 1975 and his Master of Business Administration in Accounting from Babson College. He was licensed in 1979 as a Certified Public Accountant in Massachusetts, and earned the Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter designation in 1992.

THE INSURANCE LIBRARY

The Insurance Library is the only independent library in the country focused on risk management and insurance information. Founded in 1887, the Library has a unique historical collection that has been developed and curated since its earliest days. It serves the public and enriches the insurance community as a provider of valuable expert research services, professional education including designation programs and webinars, and networking events that provide opportunities for engagement among its members.

The Library is a member-supported non-profit organization. We depend upon and appreciate the support of many to carry out our mission.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Author Talk: A Furious Sky by Eric Jay Dolin

June 1, 2021

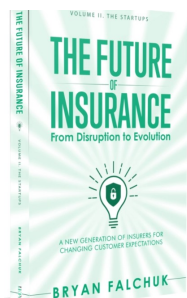

To mark the beginning of hurricane season, The Library is pleased to offer a talk with the man who literally wrote the book on the subject. In his book, A Furious Sky, Eric Jay Dolin contends we must look to our nation's past if we hope to comprehend the consequences of the hurricanes of the future.

Virtual Lunch & Learn with Benjamin Wiggins

July 28, 2021

In Calculating Race, historian Benjamin Wiggins analyzes the historical relationship between statistical risk assessment and race in the U.S. with a focus on how risk assessment became a guiding force in government policy, and exploring the use of “proxies” for race.

Virtual Book Launch & Learn with Bryan Falchuk

August 11, 2021

The Library is excited to host Bryan Falchuk for the launch of his second book related to the future of insurance. In The Future of Insurance: From Disruption to Evolution, Volume II: The Startups Bryan dives deep into the genesis stories of nine startup carriers and MGAs as they respond uniquely to the twists and turns of being a startup in the fast-paced world of InsurTech.
