

The Insurance Library

Research • Education • Engagement

“The Library is an amazing organization that provides resources and education to the insurance industry. We are fortunate to have this hub for us to gather to discuss issues and celebrate our industry. Cross Insurance is proud to be a supporter of the Library.”

Jonathan Cross, President & CEO, Cross Insurance

“It’s refreshing to have the Insurance Library as a resource to provide educational and knowledge-based webinars for HUB’s associates. In addition, the Library’s robust engagement events provide an opportunity for our young guns to enhance their networks.”

Charles J. Brophy, III,
President & CEO of HUB
International New England, and
Library trustee

“The Insurance Library is important to our industry and you should support it!”

Bryan Falchuk, President & CEO of PLRB, Founder & Managing Partner of Insurance Evolution Partners, and best-selling author of The Future of Insurance series

EDUCATION

Emerging Issues in Commercial Insurance

This Webinar is Sponsored By:

The Library is a leading provider of education programs, including:

- Monthly webinars approved for producer (and in some cases adjuster) continuing education credit in all six New England states, which are also for those seeking to expand their insurance education without CE credit.
- Webinar sponsorship program, which provide insurers, agents and brokers, and others with a cost-effective way to offer up to 15 CE-approved classes to employees or producers each year.
- Custom education programs, presented by experienced instructors either virtually, in-person at the client's location, or hybrid.
- Collaborations with insurance, risk management, and legal organizations such as Massachusetts RIMS and Social Law Library.
- A Summer Intern Program, which provides educational programs concerning insurance and career success for interns and early career professionals from member organizations.

RESEARCH RESOURCES & SERVICES

Our unique collection of insurance materials is available to members (who may borrow materials and get access to digital resources) and the public. Our professional research librarian can for a fee perform research or guide individuals in their own research. As a public service, we provide pro bono research to consumers referred to the Library by the Massachusetts Division of Insurance.

ENGAGEMENT

The Library had a wide range of virtual and in-person engagement events in 2025, including:

- Our Summer Intern Program, with a record 120 participants, with networking opportunities and special events such as a professional headshot session and an ice cream sundae social, where representatives of Boston Chapter CPCU Society, Massachusetts RIMS, Massachusetts Association of Insurance Women, and NAAIA Boston Chapter spoke about how their organizations can help those starting careers in insurance.
- Virtual Lunch & Learn and book-related Launch & Learn talks.
- Our third biennial Insurance Library Scavenger Hunt, a popular team-building and networking event.
- Social events, including the Library's annual Holiday Open House, co-hosted in 2025 with Boston Chapter CPCU Society.
- The 2025 Insurance Professional of the Year Award Gala & Silent Auction at the InterContinental Boston, where 500 people from New England and across the country registered to celebrate the 2025 award recipient, Mike Christian, founder of Risk Strategies.
