RYAN TOWLE

Ryan Towle is President of Davis & Towle Insurance Group, a leading insurance agency based in Concord, New Hampshire. Ryan's grandfather Wendell Towle founded the agency in 1954 and it has grown under both his father Jeffrey Towle's leadership and now Ryan's. Over the last ten years, Ryan has been active in mergers and acquisitions and today there are fourteen Davis & Towle affiliated agencies located across New Hampshire serving property and casualty insurance through twelve separately branded agencies rooted in their communities.

Over the last 25 years Ryan has executed a growth strategy that has included recruiting talented employees, providing internal opportunities for high performers, and hiring and developing new insurance professionals from outside the industry. Companywide, Davis & Towle now employs over 150 people. Ryan initiated an internship program at the agency, with many successful participants now working in the agency or elsewhere in the industry. Ryan also expanded and deepened insurance company relationships at the agency to include serving on numerous local, regional, and national company councils and agent boards.

In 2011, under Ryan's leadership, Davis & Towle became a founding partner along with three other peer agencies in New Hampshire of Northern United Agency Alliance, which provides aggregation, products, and agency support to independent agencies across New Hampshire, Vermont, Maine, and Massachusetts. Ryan has served as managing partner of the alliance since its inception.

Ryan, who holds the Certified Insurance Counselor designation, has been active in the Big I of New Hampshire, serving as Young Agents Committee Chair, Legislative Committee member, Chairman of the Board, and Chair of the Executive Search Committee.

A native of New Hampshire, Ryan still resides in his hometown of Henniker with his wife Beth and their three children. He is a graduate of New England College with a bachelor's degree in business administration and has served as a member of the college's President's Advisory Committee. Ryan has been active in many local youth sport leagues and town committees, and served as Treasurer of White Birch Center, a local nonprofit providing programming for both youth and seniors.
